

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

F-1 Undergraduate Student Transfer Form

TO: All F-1 Student Applicants Transferring From A U.S. Institution to FIU.

As a part of the application process to Florida International University, you must show that you are currently in legal F-1 status according to Bureau of Citizenship & Immigration Services regulations. To verify your status, these steps must be followed:

Step 1: You need to complete Section I

Step 2: Give this form to your international student advisor at your current school to complete Section II

Step 3: The completed form must be mailed or faxed to FIU's Office of Admissions.

IMPORTANT: We cannot issue your I-20 for transfer until after your release date (that is, the day you will finish attending your current institution), and until we receive the completed Transfer Form verifying that you are in status.

Issuing your I-20 after the release date could take a few weeks. Please allow ample time.
