

Master of Arts in Global Affairs

Globalization and Security

This track approaches security as a fundamental human need from the perspective of the traditional geopolitical-military approach and the newer, more critical view that the state-centered high politics approach distorts understandings of contemporary security problems. Security pertains to both old and new threats that concern individual states but also transcend individual state boundaries impacting communities, ethnic groups, individuals, or the international system as a whole.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- 2-year program
(No summer classes)
- Affordable tuition - $31,350
- Financial aid and scholarships
- Locked-step cohort program
- Innovative Capstone projects
- Professional Development Seminars
- Career Development Services

Michael Medina, Global Affairs '18
Manager, Fleet and Port Security
Royal Caribbean International

"Reflecting on my time as a Global Affairs student, I conclude that the experience not only augmented my abilities as a professional, but also prepared me for a field that is broad in scope and constantly evolving. The program is challenging, relevant and timely course work, along with its first-rate professors, complement these experiences in an impactful manner that will empower me to bring tremendous value to my profession."

ADMISSIONS

- Accredited US Bachelor's Degree or equivalent
- Minimum GPA of 3.0
- Official transcripts
- Two letters of recommendation
- 750-word statement of purpose
- Resumé or Curriculum Vitae
- No GRE Required

TRACK SPECIFIC COURSES

- Transnational Crime & National Security
- Global and Human Security
- Surveillance, Intelligence, and Intl. Relations
- Migration, Security, and Globalization
- Strategic Studies

Ranked Top 40 Master's Program for Policy careers in International Relations by Foreign Policy Magazine

Steven J. Green
School of International & Public Affairs

305-348-5452 | maga.fiu.edu
maga@fiu.edu
11200 SW 8th Street, Miami, FL 33199